

Canadian Association of Drug Treatment Courts

MEMBERSHIP

Members include judges, lawyers, treatment providers, members of law enforcement etc. Membership in CADTC is open to all persons and professions interested in the development of Drug Treatment Courts and problem solving courts throughout Canada, who subscribe to the recognized principles of Drug Treatment Courts, the objectives of CADTC and pay the applicable membership dues. A membership due is $60.00 bi-annually.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

- Discounted Registration Fees at National Training Conference

Members of the CADTC receive discounted registration at CADTC National Drug Treatment Court Conferences. The CADTC National Drug Treatment Court Conference is the only national conference to focus on drug abuse treatment and the criminal justice system. It is an opportunity to interact with many professionals working in Drug Treatment Courts and to attend workshops and seminars that provide education and technical assistance.

- Access to the CADTC Electronic Bulletin

Members of the CADTC have access to the CADTC Electronic Bulletin. This bulletin has been established in partnership with the Department of Justice Canada. The Electronic Bulletin provides CADTC members with access to the expertise of Drug Treatment Court professionals across Canada. The CADTC Electronic Bulletin is an excellent technical assistance tool which provides an opportunity for persons interested in Drug Treatment Courts to communicate with and share ideas with each other.
